

Homework: Programming Languages

Problems for homework for the "Software Technologies" course @ Software University.

Submit this document as your homework.

1. JavaScript:

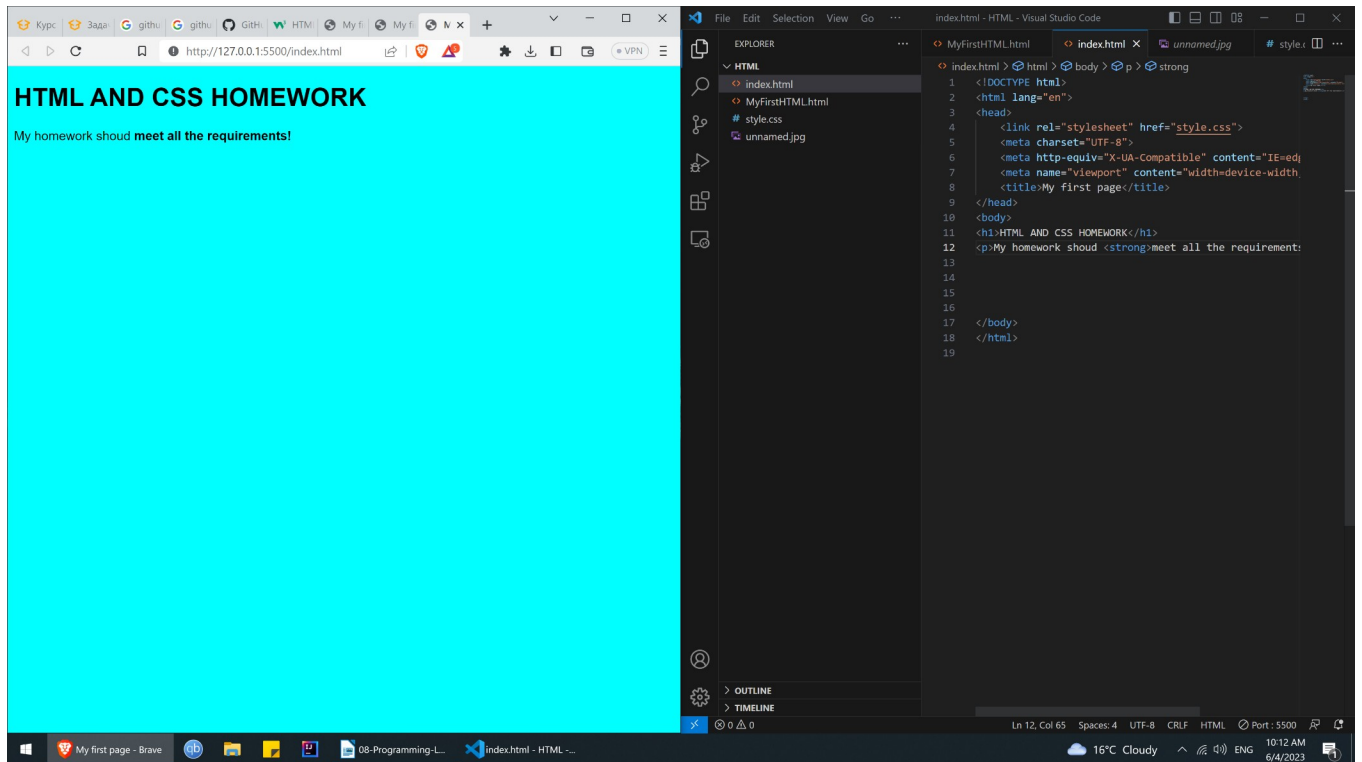

1. Open the Browser Console.
2. Create a JS function for calculating and returning the area of a rectangle.
3. Create the constants needed and assign some random values:
4. Execute the JS function in the Browser Console:
5. Print the calculated area on the Browser Console in the following format: "The area of the rectangle is: areaValue sq.cm." :
6. Example:

! Replace all example pictures with screenshots from your PC.

2. HTML & CSS

1. Using the tutorial from the Exercise Document, Create a simple Web Page that looks like the Example Below.

2. Example:

! Replace all pictures with screenshots from your PC.